ELECTROPODES

A NEW ELECTRIC TREATMENT

Gives Nerves Remarkable Vigor

Electropodes, a Wonderful, Simple Device to Produce Astonishing Nerve Strength.

How Any Man or Woman Can Get and Use Them.

There is no more excuse for any man or woman who suffers from nervous exhaustion, run-down condition, weak nerves, lack of ambition, energy, or vitality. A wonderfully simple device, called Electropodes, is now designed to supply all the strength necessary to render the nerves strong and vigorous without having to resort to temporary stimulants, tonics or medicines of any kind.

Electropodes are not an experiment; that they produce results which can be quickly felt and even seen in an improved condition of the general system is the emphatic statement of those who have used them.

Electropodes represent a distinct advance in the application of electricity for the cure of diseases. They are reported to have a remarkable effect not only upon the nerves, but also upon the kidneys, stomach and liver, being an exceptional remedy for kidney troubles, stomach and liver derangements, neuralgia, rheumatism, backache, lumbago, insomnia and weak heart.

Electropodes are metallic shoes so placed in the feet as to be unnoticeable to the wearer. By contact with the body, it causes the electricity and invigorates every fibre, organ, nerve, and blood vessel and the condition of the system quickly changes for the better. Electropodes are never uncomfortable, yet you feel a mighty change and increased power creeping upon you.

To prove that these statements are not in the least exaggerated, The Western Electropode Company, of Los Angeles, California, has your druggist sign a contract that if you are not satisfied with the Electropodes at the end of 30 days' trial, you can have your money right back.

Electropodes are sold at drug stores at $1.00 a pair under contract to satisfy you. If your druggist does not have Electropodes on hand, send us $1.00 and we will see that you are supplied.

A LITTLE RED SPOT.

Novel Experiment by Which It May Be Made to Disappear.

A peculiar feature about posam, the new skin discovery, is that no one is asked to buy it without first sending to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, for an experimental sample, and applying same to an affected part of the skin, about the size of a silver dollar. It will clear the spot so treated in twenty-four hours—a remarkable visual demonstration of its power. Here posam has been mentioned principally in connection with the cure of eczema, the most stubborn of skin diseases, it must be remembered that when used for itch, hives, pimples, blotches, acne, itching feet, scaly scalp, chafing of infants and similar minor skin troubles, its action is more pronounced, results being seen after overnight application. As only a small quantity of posam is necessary to cure such a special fifty-cent package, usually sufficient, has been placed on sale at the Schramm-Johnson Drug Co. and other leading drug stores in Salt Lake City and throughout the country.

son; taxes, Flygare, Browning and Peery; sidewalks, Humphries, Flygare, Browning, waterworks, Dickson, Peery, Wilson, Humphries and Dana. Following the appointments, Mayor Glassman presented a communication to the council recommending the Rev. J. E. Carver for appointment as a member of the board of trustees of the Carnegie free library. After the transaction of a number of other routine matters the council adjourned.

PROSECUTION RESTS IN ERNST MURDER CASE

Defense Will Rely on Plea of Justifiable Homicide for Acquittal.

OGDEN, Jan. 11.—At the opening of court yesterday in the case of Clarence Ernst, charged with murder in the first degree, the prosecution rested and the attorney for the defense announced that it was his intention to try the case on the grounds of justifiable homicide. City Detective J. P. Foster, who was about 12 years, and Browning testified to the good character of the defendant and also to the fact that Ernst had told them that Staples was a bad man and that he appeared to fear the deceased. A. L. Brewer, H. H. Spencer, R. E. Hoag and Horace Peery, all prominent business men of the city, testified that they had known the defendant for several years, and that his reputation was above reproach. William D. Carter, a cook in the employ of W. H. Bancroft, general manager of the O. S. L., testified that he had known the deceased Staples for about 12 years, and that he was "an all round bad man." This testimony was objected to by the district attorney but later the objection was overruled. Ernst was placed on the stand and testified in his own behalf. He was on the stand when court adjourned till Tuesday morning and was still on the stand when court adjourned at noon today. It is expected the case will be concluded and given to the jury this evening. It looks very favorable for an acquittal.

WEBER COUNTY OUT OF DEBT WITH BIG SURPLUS

OGDEN, Jan. 11.—For the first time in many decades, Weber county is out of debt, and also has a handsome balance on hand of $41,000. This splendid showing was made to the county commissioners this morning at their regular weekly meeting, when the report of County Auditor Dye for the year 1909 was read.

The county starts the new year with all of its debts paid in full and with the amount of $41,000 over and above all expenses which have been contracted. When it is considered that in the past year Weber county has done more road work than ever before in its history, which will easily reach a total cost of $40,000; that salaries of all employees in the county have been increased, and that other expenditures have been made out of the regular expenses, the showing by the county officials is an excellent one.

At the meeting today the tax sale redemptions were apportioned as follows: State, $568.22; Ogden city, $43,711; Ogden city school district, $28,255; Weber county school district, $322.21.

COAL SHORTAGE UNRELIEVED.

OGDEN, Jan. 11.—The coal shortage has not been relieved yet, in spite of the united efforts of the coal dealers, and there are many families in Ogden who are unable to get sufficient fuel to heat their homes. Unless something is done by the railroad companies, who have absolute control of the situation, it is feared that many citizens will suffer during the present cold weather. Several hundreds of cars of coal are sent through Ogden daily, very little of it is for commercial purposes and most of it is for the homes of the people in the city. When a car arrives, the people who are there with a dry or other means of cartage, are successful in obtaining coal, but those who are unfortunate enough not to be present, notwithstanding the fact that their orders have been on file for many weeks, do not get any fuel. This is not always the case, and this is not wholly the fault of the dealer, who has only a limited amount to dispose of—much less than is called for by the orders on his file.

OGDEN, Jan. 11.—Large and apparent audience are witnessing the splendid bill at the Orpheum this week, which is the equal of any seen here. Edwin Stevens, assisted by Miss Tina Marshall, is the headliner.

CROWDED POLICE COURT.

OGDEN, Jan. 11.—Police officers Mohlman, Crompton and Russell arrested 39 men early Monday morning in the Rio Grande railroad yards and brought them to the police station where they were held on a charge of trespassing on railroad property. All of the men were released in freight cars and other places and stated that they were simply waiting till morning when they would move on to some other point. Judge Murphy closely questioned the men and after a conference with Chief of Police T. E. Browning, they were given their liberty with the understanding that they would procure work. All of the men appeared to be of the laboring class and were, as a rule, respectable in appearance. However, they were all without funds and the only things of value found on the entire crowd were three pocket knives and even these had broken blades.

Magistrate Messenger was arraigned on the charge of vagrancy and given 10 days in the city jail.

S. Cameron was charged with vagrancy and was given the liberty with the understanding that he would get work at once.

Pat Froden was sentenced to 10 days in jail for vagrancy.

W. Druzer, a mere youth, was charged with drunkenness. He stated that his age was 18 years. The court took the matter under advisement. Frank H. Sawyer was charged with drunkenness and the judge took his case under advisement before passing sentence.

It was necessary to bring him to Ogden so that the grip could be recovered from the friend. He will be taken to Reno for trial.

ANSWER FILED.

OGDEN, Jan. 11.—In a lengthy answer to the complaint recently filed by the Orpheum Amusement company against Gideon V. Candish and Margaret Candish, the defendants set forth certain alleged facts by which they will endeavor to prove that there is no cause for action, and enter a demurrer to the complaint. They state that they have been damaged in the sum of $7,650.50 and that after paying $900 of this amount as rent for November and December, they are entitled to the balance, $6,750.50, and they ask that damages in this amount be awarded them.

ACKNOWLEDGES BLAME.

OGDEN, Jan. 11.—At the regular meeting of the county commissioners, L. L. Dagon, chief engineer of the Utah Light & Railway company appeared and stated that his company acknowledged that the recent damage done to the county bridge near the mouth of Ogden canyon by the ice slide, was due to the neglect of the company in shutting off the water in the overflow pipe and that the company was ready to settle for the damage as soon as it had been determined. No definite action was taken in the matter.

CONVALESCENT.

Convalescent is sometimes merely apparent, not real, and especially is this true after such diseases as pneumonia, typhoid fever and the grip. To make it real and rapid, there is no other tonic so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine cleanses and renews the blood, strengthens all the organs and functions, and restores health. Take Hood's.

OGDEN, Jan. 10.—Mrs. C. L. Olson, wife of Atty. Culbert L. Olson, had a most remarkable escape from serious injury at the corner of Second South and Main streets at 6:40 Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Olson were waiting for a street car to take them to their home, 67 E. 2nd, when a man who gave the name of C. A. Perry, drove around the corner in a buggy. The horse became frightened at something, and jumping near the curb, knocked Mrs. Olson down.

Mrs. Olson displayed rare presence of mind by lying perfectly still until the horse passed over her. For a second it seemed the horse would plant his sharp hoof in Mrs. Olson's face, but he passed over without stepping on her. Mrs. Olson prepared herself for the shock of the buggy passing over her body and she emerged from the dangerous position with nothing more than a severe bruise on her arm.

The man driving the buggy stopped the horse and came back to learn how seriously the woman was injured. E. C. Camp was driving by in an automobile at the time of the accident and took Mr. and Mrs. Olson home in the machine.

MINING MAN COMES OUT.

William Lloyd of Pioche Makes Hard Trip to Railroad Connections.

William Lloyd, superintendent of the Prince Consolidated and third owner of the Mendota mine, and for 21 years a resident of Pioche, a cough and cold, having gotten out of Pioche a few days ago by breaking trail through the deep snows of the Sierrita mountains, a distance of 40 miles. He says passenger travel has ceased, and no ore can be sent out.

The road Mr. Lloyd broke through, with a light vehicle drawn by two span of horses is in bad condition, and will not permit of an ore haul for 90 days to come. The snow in places was over a foot deep, and it took him 13 hours to get through. Mr. Lloyd thinks that in order to get a good permanent roadbed with not too much grade, the San Pedro will have to strike much farther north, passing not far below Pioche, near Panaca, which would increase the present mileage of the road some 40 miles.

BRIGHAM CITY COLD.

Coal Supply Very Short and All Fear Repetition of Late Cold Spell.

Late word from Brigham City is to the effect that the coal famine up there is still pending. The city having been able to secure only sufficient coal from day to day to keep the people from actual suffering. The break in the cold weather has slightly reduced the town's daily consumption, but another cold spell would make the condition serious, as the dealers still have not a pound of coal in their bins, and most of the people have but a few days' supply on hand.
